

Call for Papers

2nd Annual Research Conference in Bonn, November 26-27, 2026

The DFG-funded Center for Advanced Studies: Finance and Inequality (CASFI) at the University of Bonn invites submissions for its 2nd Annual Research Conference to be held on November 26 and 27, 2026.

The conference brings together researchers in macroeconomics, economic history, and financial history to discuss recent advances in understanding the relationship between finance and inequality. Across two half-day sessions, participants will present their work and engage in in-depth discussions. A central objective of the conference is to promote exchange and collaboration among scholars working at the intersection of macroeconomics, finance, and the historical evolution of income and wealth inequality.

We invite submissions of high-quality research papers focusing on, but not limited to, the following areas:

- Macroeconomics of frictional financial markets
- Heterogeneous agent macroeconomics
- History of income and wealth distribution
- History of financial markets and institutions
- History of growth, fluctuations, inflation, and exchange rates

Program Committee:

Christian Bayer (University of Bonn, CEPR)
Carsten Burhop (University of Bonn)
Sergio de Ferra (University of Oxford, CEPR)
Federica Romei (University of Oxford, CEPR)
Catherine Schenk (University of Oxford, CEPR)
John Turner (Queens University Belfast, CEPR)

Submission Guidelines:

Please submit your paper or extended abstract in PDF format by September 6, 2026 to casfi@uni-bonn.de. Submission should include:

- Title of the paper
- Abstract
- Contact information of all authors

Preference will be given to full papers. We expect to notify successful submissions by September 25, 2026.

CASFI will provide accommodation for up to three nights and reimburse presenters' travel expenses in accordance with University of Bonn/CEPR regulations.

For more information, please contact us at casfi@uni-bonn.de.

We look forward to welcoming you to Bonn in November 2026.
